

The Butterflies of Sussex 2010

A one day conference to launch the recording effort for a new Sussex Butterfly Atlas, organised by Butterfly Conservation Sussex Branch

Saturday 10 April 2010, 10:30 am to 3:00 pm

(please arrive between 10:00 and 10:30 am to enable a prompt start and time for coffee)

Clair Hall, Perrymount Road, Haywards Heath

Join us to learn more about our current knowledge of butterflies in Sussex, get tips on identifying difficult species, meet other butterfly recorders, and find out how you can help the butterfly recording effort. This event is offered free of charge to anyone interested in butterfly recording in Sussex. Booking is essential and places are limited.

To book please return the slip below by email to clarejeffers@aol.com or by post to:
Clare Jeffers, Recording Officer, Butterfly Conservation Sussex Branch
3 Friston Place Cottages, Friston, Nr. Eastbourne, East Sussex BN20 0AJ.

If you book a place and subsequently discover you're not going to be able to come, please remember to cancel it so that we can offer the place to someone else.

Clair Hall is wheelchair accessible, has an induction loop, welcomes access/guide dogs and has disabled parking (limited). To ensure that everything goes as smoothly as possible for you on the day please let us know about any special needs that you may have when booking your place.

Please use this space to tell us if there are any aspects of butterfly recording in Sussex which you're especially interested in, and let us know if there's anywhere in particular, in Sussex, where you expect to be recording butterflies:

Butterfly Conservation Sussex Branch is able to offer this event, including a simple lunch, absolutely free of charge thanks to a grant from OPAL. However the budget is fairly tight – so donations would be gratefully received. Any donations not spent on covering the costs of the day will be put towards the Sussex Butterfly Atlas project. If you wish to make a donation, please make cheques payable to Butterfly Conservation Sussex Branch.

* the buffet will be mostly vegetarian, but if you are a vegan or have other dietary requirements please let us know.
