

Silver-studded Blue Ashdown Forest

Found in heathland where the silvery-blue wings of the males (blue with thick dark border) provide a marvellous sight as they fly low over the heather. The females are brown and far less conspicuous but, like the male, have distinct metallic spots on the hindwing. In late afternoon the adults often congregate to roost on sheltered bushes or grass tussocks.

-  Records since 2010
-  Records 1990 to 2009
-  Records pre-1990

© Crown Copyright and database rights 2016. Ordnance Survey 1002201.

Please record your sightings at www.sussex-butterflies.org.uk

or record them on the iRecord Butterflies App

Butterfly Conservation is working in partnership with:

Supported by:

